Barnes and Noble Textbook Scholarship

Barnes and Noble is generously funding several textbook scholarships for up to $650 for Colorado School of Mines students for the spring 2018 semester to use at the campus Bookstore. Previous applicants and winners can apply again with a new essay.

Applicant must:
- Be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident
- Be an undergraduate student
- Have filed the 2017-2018 FAFSA
- Be a full-time student

Complete and return with essay via email or in person by 5:00 pm, Friday December 15, 2017

stzegai@mines.edu

Financial Aid Office
Colorado School of Mines
Attention: Sham Tzegai
Ben Parker Student Center
Golden, Colorado 80401

Name: _______________________________________

CWID: ________________________________

Local Address: ___________________________________________________

Mines Email Address: _____________________________________________

Major: _______________________

Class Level (freshman, sophomore, etc.): __________________

Cumulative GPA: __________________

Expected Grad Date: _________

In 250 to 300 words write about a book, how it has affected you, and how you will benefit from this scholarship.